We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. We have worksheets to guide you in gathering information to help keep pertinent information from being overlooked.

You agree that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge, and that you have records as required by law to support your information. You should retain all documents pertaining to your income and deductions. These records may be necessary to prove the accuracy of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns; therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. These penalties can be substantial. If you have questions on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact us.

We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible.

You must review the return and sign it or sign an E-file authorization form before the return can be filed with the taxing authorities. We are not responsible for the length of time it takes the taxing authorities to process your returns.

Our fees for tax services are based on the number and complexity of the tax forms required, as well as any additional time spent to summarize, research or gather information in phone calls, emails, meetings or other correspondence. This time is billed at $70 - $125 per hour. Complete, concise records help keep your bill to a minimum.

The returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such tax notices or government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you at an additional cost. Our fee for these services will be based upon the amount of time required, at standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation.

Sincerely,

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE

Under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, financial institutions must provide their customers with a "clear and conspicuous" notice about their privacy policies and practices; the conditions under which they disclose nonpublic personal information about consumers to nonaffiliated third parties; and how consumers can prevent the disclosure of their information. You already may have received such notices from the banks and brokerage firms with which you do business.

Following the passage of this legislation, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) issued detailed rules on these privacy notices, including to whom they should apply. In those rules, the FTC defined "financial institutions" to include all those who provide "financial or investment advisory services." In turn, the FTC rules chose to broadly interpret "financial or investment advisory activities" to cover "tax planning and tax preparation."

In compliance with the FTC rules, printed below is our firm's current Privacy Disclosure Statement. Be assured that this firm has always considered our professional relationship with you to be one requiring the utmost trust and confidence. Please do not hesitate to call us if you have any questions whatsoever about this notice.

Beacon Tax does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients, without permission, to anyone except (1) as absolutely required by law or (2) as needed by our employees to provide services or products to you or (3) if you choose to utilize our secure email (NeoCertified), the emails may be viewed by Geneos Wealth Management. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

If you have any concerns about the disclosure of your personal information to third parties, or wish to stop any disclosure that has been noted above, you may call the following number (610) 385-4500 or write to: Beacon Tax, 978 Ben Franklin Highway, Douglassville, PA 19518.
